SANTA ROSA VS. SALINAS

Though brilliant Stan Noyes (right) was lost to the Panthers when he sustained a broken foot, he has a capable understudy in Captain "Red" Silliman (left) who will call signals tomorrow for Salinas. "Red", who has showed such a strong heart at center has lately revealed sound judgment as a caller of signals. Crawford, flanked by Coover, and Lafka at guard, Trotter and Voris at tackle positions, and Garcia and Weaver at ends, will be the pivot of a fast, low-charging line. With the speed of Carter, the superlative kicking of Judge, and the plunging of Swartley, the backfield should give a good account of themselves in spite of the fact that fellow players have been lost through injuries and ineligibility. This bunch is entering the game well trained, in splendid spirit and with every intention of ending the season in a blaze of glory.

Armistice Program to Feature Jaysee Game

Playing their fourth home game on the green turf of the Lettuce Bowl, the Salinas J. C. Maroon and Gold will clash with the Santa Rosa J. C. Red and Blue tomorrow.

The kickoff is scheduled for 2 o'clock and the game is expected to be a jungle battle between Panthers and Cubs from beginning to end.

Probable Starting Lineup

Panthers	Cubs
Garcia	LER. Weatherington
Trotter	LTR. Matteri
Lafka	LGR. Hill
Crawford	C. Graham
Coover	RGL. Mastin
Voris	RTL. Wasson
Weaver	REL. Daubin
Silliman	Q. Randall
Carter	RHL. O'Hair
Judge	LHR. Battaghia
Swartley	F. Kinney

Since the slam-fest is being played on Armistice Day, it is customary to open the day in a patriotic manner. The Salinas 40th Tank Company, under the leadership of Captain Frank Heple, will begin the ceremonies by having a flag raising and rifle salute. Mr. Lorell McCann and his J. C. Band will then follow by playing the "Star Spangled Banner."

During the half time period the American Legion bugler will continue the program with "Taps". In conclusion the flag will be lowered to "The Colors" and the afternoon will be closed by a rifle salute.

A lighter form of entertainment to be heard from time to time during the game will be "swing" music played by the band. It was even suggested by Mr. McCann to follow the Stanford method of pep and amusement and have a "trucking" act as did the Indians last Saturday.

The junior college students urge the people of Salinas to be patriotic and pay tribute to those who gave their lives to make our country a safe place in which to live.

OUR HERO

"Who's a sissy?" "You're a sissy!" "Come on and prove it then!" "All right, get out and I will." In the meantime the taxi cab driver was swiftly rolling up the window and locking the doors, while our gallant principal, R. J. Werner, was going to the rescue of his women-folks.

It all happened after the game in Berkeley between California and Washington. Suddenly a taxi-cab came tearing down the street with little regard for the life and limb of the closely packed crowds. Heedlessly the driver drove, and swerving, knocked down Mrs. Werner and her aunt while they were being escorted by the aforementioned prexy.

While a crowd of 2000 stood around and cheered, our hero whipped the women up from the ground, rushed through the intervening space, drove his fist through the taxi window with the force that made him outstanding for his lightweight boxing, hauled the driver out and gave him a trouncing he will not be likely to forget.

Frosh Pajamarino Tonite; Bonfire, Parade, Dance

Tonight in the back of the Jaysee gym is to be the biggest rally that has taken place since there have been people in Salinas. Townspeople and students like will join in the revelry. This rally is to be the stepping stone for a traditional pre-traditional Armistice Day rally, and will be known as the Pajamarino. Three cheers for the freshman class, which is sponsoring it. There will be busses from King City and the peninsula.

The Pajamarino will be tonight! Everybody please bring your car. All participants will meet on the front steps of the Jaysee at 7:30. From there the band, in a truck, followed by the football team, will lead the procession of cars in a parade down Central Avenue, up Main Street, and back to the Jaysee by way of Alisal Street.

Jack Kympton, president of the student body, will be master of ceremonies and will lead the songs and yells that will be had as soon as the procession comes back to the school. The football boys will light the fire (which is to be built of wood gathered by Harold Peters and Laurie Matiasovich. You can picture them with their trusty axes cutting down the old oak tree).

There are to be three skits, which will be alternated with songs and yells, a speech by Coach Adams, and the burning of Santa Rosa at the stake. Characters at these skits will be Florence Hurst, Jane Vincent and Winifred Kincannon.

Freshmen only are to wear pajamas. There will be prizes for the boy, girl, and couple having the most original costumes, and these winners will lead the procession into the gym for the dance which will be the grand finale.

And so will end a night rally that will go down in history as the first of an interminable series.

BIG RALLY! BIG TIME! BIG GAME!

Tonight is the rally -- tomorrow the game! The Pajamarino will be the biggest rally in the school's history, climaxed by a big bonfire and a dance. The game will be the best of the year, played on a holiday, with our team in it's best condition. The Jaysee swing band will be present in full array, and busses will offer transportation to all who want it. Conditions are perfect, the rest depends on YOU!

We know we don't have to say anything about school spirit. With the excellent provisions that have been made, there won't be any members of the student body that won't attend. Students that haven't loyalty to come when transportation has been provided, cannot really be considered members of our school. They are just "hangers-on", without whom the school would be much better off.

But enough said. We know that we'll all be at both the rally and the game. Show your pep by yelling with the leaders. Bring your friends to the game and we'll make it the most successful event of the year.

Remember, the biggest rally of our history is at 7:30 o'clock tonight, and the best game of the year is at 2 o'clock tomorrow!

Come on, and we'll trounce those Cubs so badly that they'll have to go back to their holes to hibernate.

MAIL BOX

Dear Editor:

I can't say much for the letters turned in by the "indulgents" and printed in the last issue of the Battery. They have a lot of gall referring to editors as not broad-minded when they turn in such one-sided letters. They evidently have absolutely no respect for, or pride in, the appearance of our school and campus. They claim graduation from high school and argue that 85 per cent of the people indulge. Who cares how many indulge -- the question concerns the smoking on or near the school premises. There's a place for everything, and in front of the school is not the place to smoke. Many taxpayers regret voting for the appropriation for the school and have been heard to refer to the junior college students as just a "bunch of hoodlums." On the U. C. L. A. campus it is tradition NOT to smoke. At least they have some pride in the reputation and appearance of their school. That's more than we can say for some of our students.

Last year's class at least had pride and strength enough to walk as far as the corner of the park. I hope that some of our "broadminded" indulgers will take the hint and do the same this year.

G. A. A. STARTS VOLLEY BALL

Now is the time to come out to make G. A. A. points in volley ball. Games will start next week on Tuesday and Thursday. All those interested are to sign on the bulletin board in the girls' gym.

All girls who want to go out for modern dancing may do so whether they have been taking that course in the regular class time or not. Practice is at eight o'clock Friday morning. In addition to counting toward G. A. A. points, this extra-curricular activity will be working for the dance program to be given next spring.

Another G. A. A. sport already underway is the tennis tournament. A large number of students are participating at present. They are playing three sets of six games each in the eliminations for the final championship.

Clubs to Hold Reception For Principal R. J. Werner

LA REATA STARTS AD CAMPAIGN

The "La Reata" business staff started its annual advertising campaign this week. The staff has men and women placed in all surrounding towns which have students attending the Salinas Junior College.

The primary duty of these students is to approach the business merchants of their respective towns in a business-like, courteous manner. By order of the Salinas Chamber of Commerce, local merchants can be solicited for an ad only once by our representatives. However, this does not apply to merchants in other towns.

A new kind of advertising is being introduced into the "La Reata" this year. It is the hope of the staff that this form of advertising will benefit the advertisers to a greater extent than has ever been done before by local school publications.

When you buy, remind the merchants of your school—mention "La Reata"!

LAST MATH CONTEST

Winners of last week's contest will be announced on the bulletin board today, the paper having gone to press before all entries were received.

The correct position were: President, Mr. Ford; vice president No. 1, Mr. Jones; vice president No. 2, Miss Dale; vice president No. 3, Mr. Camp; cashier, Mr. Adams; teller, Mr. Grant; assistant teller, Miss Hill; bookkeeper, Mr. Long; stenographer No. 1, Mrs. Brown; stenographer, No. 2, Mrs. Kane; janitor, Mr. Evans.

This will be the fifth and final contest the Battery will run. Some students have requested that a puzzle column (without prizes, of course) be included in the Battery. If enough written requests are turned in to the staff during the next week, this may be done. All you puzzle fans let us know if you really are interested.

Last Contest

The rules will be the same as last week. Prizes will be the choice of any candy bar, ice cream sandwich or a bottle of Coca Cola.

The problem is simple: There is a hole 15 feet long and 2 feet wide in a granary floor. How can it be entirely covered with a board 10 feet long and 3 feet wide, by cutting the board only once.

Hurry -- the first 12 correct answers win!

Mr. R. J. Werner will be officially welcomed by a reception which is being given by the Upsilon Gamma Chi and the Men's Club. Because of the fact that so many of the parents, relatives and friends have not as yet had the opportunity to meet Mr. Werner, outside of the business hours of the school, this reception will be for this purpose. Although the program is not completed, the outline has been. Mr. Case will open the program with a speech of welcome to Mr. Werner, after which Mr. Werner will reply. The rest of the program will then follow. Miss Lowe's musical ensemble of seven voices will sing "Star of Love," by Albeniz, "O Lord Most Holy," by Cesare Franck, "Echo's Lament" by Wilson, and "Stay In Your Own Back Yard," by Udall. Girls who will sing are Mildred McNeal, Virginia Sturtevant, Beth Falkenberg, Alvaretta Murray, Betty Draper, Florence Hurst and Glendora Fenwick.

Other members of the program will be the verse-speaking choir, which has a number of new selections, either the brass quartette or a soloist, and a dance arrangement. The affair will be held in the junior college library at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, November 18.

JAYSEE BUSES GOING TO GAME

From all sections—King City, the Monterey Peninsula, Watsonville and Santa Cruz -- the busses will bring students to the Armistice Day game, free of charge. With transportation being provided and the game being on a holiday, rooters will have no reason for not attending. A large turnout is expected to help the spirit of the football players.

The regular daily schedule will be changed as follows: The busses will leave King City at 10:30 a. m.; Santa Cruz at 10:30 a. m.; the Monterey Peninsula at 11 a. m. They are all planning to arrive here at 12 o'clock.

FIELD TRIP

Members of the zoology and biology classes, with Miss McKay will trip lightly over to P. G. next Monday on a field trip in the big yellow bus. It is hoped that the members will not get seasick or carsick on the trip; but hopes may be in vain, as they will be eating their lunch on the bus on the way over.

They will leave the school at 12 o'clock and return in time to catch the busses at four o'clock.

Members of the zoology class who are going are Betty Brown, Gileene Curtis, Betty Draper, Ruth Gordon, Stanley Irelan, Bill Jensen, Edythe Kopp, Evelyn Onoye, Louise Philbrick, Ruth Robinson, Bill Shepherd, Vivian Stevenson, Mildred Vincent, Bill Wing, Bernard Wolcott, Rol Tatum, and Frances Ruhlen. Biology students who will also make the trip are Eileen Breschini, Armistine Salmina, Barbara Tracy, Eugenia Gomes, and Doris Bradshaw.

Over the BACK FENCE

Frances Kashner has taken up Mr. Peavy's idea of skating—he skates back and forth to the high school for his classes over there.

There is one grand mix-up with a Hutchinson and a Hutchings, and a Pavey and Peavy, running around school.

Those grand fights that the boys have out on the front steps are merely an attempt to work off excess energy . . . they will soon be able to work off such energy by planting the lawn.

Say—we heard Miss Hutchinson when she took that grand flop over at the skate. Did you? And Mr. Peavy and his wife were there too.

Just thoughts . . . Why isn't the queen chosen at the beginning of the year instead of the end? She'd have a whole year to reign instead of one month, if she as chosen sooner. What will all these people who eat in the park do during rainy season? So far there isn't room in which they might congregate. Guess they'll keep on using the hall. When are the boys going to stage their Whiskerino? Let's have some action. That calls for a ribbon for the girls too. What do you call a triple trio when it isn't a triple trio. A sextet plus one, or a triple trio minus two? What has happened to the Creative Writers? They used to get out the Pendulum, which was one swell book.

It seems that Lyle Stageberg has been accused of two timing. And in Dramatics he declares very passionately that he is not the romantic type!

You may not know it but the parking lot is under way. Let's hope you use it when and if it is finished.

Can you pronounce Gilesene Curtis? We just call her Curtis and let it go at that.

Remember Ruth Robinson? And also that blond boy with the mustache with the handle of Lester Gray? Well they are going together.

Ed deMattoes seems to go out plenty in spite of the rumors around that he is an engaged man.

It seems that Pat King of the high school wants to meet Burr Scott. Line up girls—introduction ten cents apiece.

Billie Altaffer certainly has made an impression upon Bob

THE CLOTHES CLOSET

There will be an unusual opportunity for securing clothing ideas at the Pajamarino. The taste in nightwear of all the freshmen can be discovered. Anyone desiring to know the latest, the ultra modern, in pajamas, must attend.

A few of the students revealed what they would wear to the rally Wednesday night. One of the most practical suggestions was advanced by John Silliman. In order to keep warm he will wear three pairs of pajamas. The outer layer of his costume has not yet been chosen, but it is sure to be gaudy. Jean Dennis will show her school spirit by displaying pajamas of polka-dotted maroon, rolled up slightly to reveal yellow-gold socks. Florence Hurst will probably be in flannels. If he comes, Lester Gray, will wear beach pajamas. Silk pajamas will be modeled by Mervin Weaver, but he plans to show his masculine common sense by bringing along a bottle of finger-nail polish, just in case. A direct opposite to this will be Chick Day in his night shirt. Clarence Pavey and Olga Austin will be in unusual clothes, that is, for night dress. The former will wear his day-time attire—cords. The latter is coming in jeans and cowboy boots, which are not conventionally worn in bed. Nevertheless most of the other freshmen are going to show up in genuine sleeping pajamas.

Coover if our eyes don't deceive us.

Oh, say there, Jean—better watch out or the man in the uniform will catch you next time—and you won't get off so easy, either.

All these sore arms around school are a combination of the skating party and the T. B. test.

Bets are being placed now as to how many people will fall in the ocean during the Zoology field trip next Monday.

This business of getting out a paper four days early isn't so hot—or maybe its too hot—you ought to see the staff when the news was announced!

SKATE SNOOPS

'Twas a gala gathering of 98 guys and gals at the recent skating party in Watsonville. Many new faces were in evidence, and the "veterans" graciously welcomed the numerous newcomers. So around and around they go, and where they fall, nobody knows, or cares . . . Two charming coeds, coming for the first time, were Betty Silliman and Lucille Curtis, who skated exclusively with each other. Nice thing! . . . Myrtle Abbott, flailing arms and all, unceremoniously towed Jimmy Hutton 'round and 'round . . . Clarence Zingheim, minus Glendora, still used the old technique, and what technique! . . . Bob Henderson, with his Laura, finally admits that he really had a swell time, better than expected . . . Miss Hutchinson is "absolutely" the most graceful sitter-downer these old eyes have seen in many moons, judging by her beautiful three-point landing . . .

Don Coover, our own exclusive photographer, finally managed to get a picture of the entire crowd, and, unless we miss our guess, this is really going to be some picture . . . We now give you the cutest couple on the rink—Mr. and Mrs. G. Darwin Peavy, no less . . . Doug Schwartz' fancy skating footwork runs a close second to his slick truckin' . . . Norman Kerns is still determined to learn, by the looks of things, evidently adhering to the "practice makes perfect" theory . . . Jack Kympton and Jean deFrancchi got "included out" of the grand march . . . Miss Lowe and Miss Rothrock were seen making the rounds accompanied by the chivalrous males . . . and Paul Lauritson striving hard to keep up with Flora Panzierra . . .

Quite a few of our more timid students are anxious to come to the skates, but they're scared to try 'cause they don't know how—for shame. It's never too late to learn . . . After our trying to inveigle Mr. Eris to go to the skate, he replied that he has enough troubles as it is . . . Ben Crawford, plenty heavy on the feet, always getting in someone's way . . . Everyone missed the "lights out" skating, for obvious reasons . . . Ernest Trigoe can certainly "pick 'em up and lay 'em down" . . . And so on into the night . . . And plenty of whoopee was made by all, after the skate!

Stuff and Things

If you want to see a good show, drop around Room 6 during psychology, where Mr. Eris goes to town. Perhaps you'll wonder what this has to do with Psychology, but nevertheless, the prof, has made it quite clear to his studies that those freakish, atrocious-looking things commonly known as women's hats just don't appeal to him. He even bought a picture, now reposing on his bulletin board, to convince us. But we don't need convincing!

Have you all heard the latest definition of college (not found in the dictionary)? It's modern educational institution at which youth, like the calf, is fatted for the kill, and to which professors go to make money, men go to make the football team, and women go to get the men. There is also a slight bit of culture floating around, but nobody seems to get stuck with any. And then there's the coed who "came to be went with, but ain't yet."

What we need in the library is a floor-silencer, or something. Every time we venture in to catch up on our overdue work, we get the once over by those super-studious scholars. Have you noticed?

Youse guys and gals will hereafter be stirred by the savage rhythms of McCann's band when you gather for rallies, games and such. S. J. C.'s number one pep factory will soon swing forth with the latest in red hot jam. In fact, it promises to give the Hoosier Hotshots a run for their money.

Are you the perfect wallflower? Do you suffer from fallen hopes, broken hearts, and timidity? We have the solution to your troubles. How about establishing a date bureau on the campus? Of course there are some who would not be eligible, as they don't seem to need the assistance of any bureau.

Have you heard that nifty new ditty about "working your way through college, to get a lot of knowledge, that you'll probably never use again?" Ain't it the truth! ! !

Hi, Studes:
Well, the Pajamarino ought to be some stuff tonight, but we're rather wondering where the Frosh are going to get the pajamas—we understand that most of them never go to bed. At least, that's what most of them like us to believe!

The football team seemed quite unimpressed Friday nite when they were informed that they were sleeping in the same hotel in which the so-famous Bret Harte wrote his equally famous works. Don't they realize the significance of such a momentous occasion? (Gee, did that come out of me?)

We got a fan-poem the other day from the author of the "Stuff and Things" column, which isn't very complimentary, but as it is the first and only fan-mail we have received, we will let you in on it . . . run your orbs over the smelly thing: At "So this is College"

I seldom take a peek
It leaves me in a stupor
The trouble is
It sure does reek
Of the well-known College Humor!

Well, after reading this extremely squishy bit we can't go on . . . so we close with a bit of advice to our fellow-columnist; namely, "A cheap skate does not cut much ice!"

Some boys are so dumb (or didn't you already know?)—They think permanent waves are small ice bergs . . . Especially the guy who means "Time stands still when I look at you," but gets mixed up and says, "Honey, your face would stop a clock" . . . But the girls seem to like 'em that way, according to the Santa Maria J. C. Breeze.

Last Conference Game Played Armistice Day

Thursday, November 11, 1918, the U. S. Army tossed their weapons away and quit fighting. On the same date 19 years later the Salinas Panthers and Santa Rosa Cubs will sharpen their claws and go to it hammer and tongs at 2 o'clock in the Lettuce Bowl. Thus will end the conference competition for both teams.

Tom Judge and Joe Garcia will be the spark plugs of the team Thursday, because the Panthers are going to play a kicking game and hope for the breaks.

Starting at left end will be Mervin Weaver, the King City terror. At left tackle, Roy Voris, the Santa Cruz heartbreaker. Don Coover, Jr., will start at left guard and big things are expected from him. Benjamin Crawford, the Oregon webfoot, will hold down the center position. At right guard will be "Pop" Lafka. Frank Trotter, the largest man on the squad, will start at right tackle. Joe Garcia, the iron man of the team, will start at right end. In the backfield will be John "Red" Silliman at quarter. Tom Judge, Redwood City kid, will start at right half. Sid Carter, the Santa Cruz speed burner, will take care of left half. John Swartley, another webfoot, will start at fullback.

High Altitude Slows J. C. In Placer Game; 6-0 Loss

Though playing their finest offensive game of the season, Salinas Jaysee went down to a game defeat last Saturday against Placer J. C., principally because of a lack of substitutes to take the places of those that were winded or hurt on the field, and the absence of many of the best players on the team. Unused to such a high altitude (Auburn being approximately 3000 feet above sea level) most of the team was breathing hard after the first quarter, and their fatigue visibly showed in their playing. Added to that was the absence of Stan Noyes, halfback, out with a broken foot; Wood, a guard, out with a bad ear, and Chick Day, suffering an injured hand.

Salinas winning the toss at the beginning of the game, a wobbly kick-off was scooped up by Storm of the Panthers' eleven and run back for a good gain. The next few downs were taken with Salinas smashing at the Spartan line which held them for no gain. Taking the ball on downs, the Placer team started a running and passing spree which netted them four first-and-tens until it was stopped and the local team took the ball. Again the Placer line was tried and this time it cracked, sending Judge off tackle for a seven-yard gain in the first play, and La Franchi over the center to twist his way 20 yards deeper into enemy territory. The next few plays were unsuccessful and again the Spartans took the ball, but were unable to push it through the powerful Panther line.

Salinas' ball at the beginning of the second quarter; Judge was given the ball and he took it for six yards on a wide end run around left, and on the remaining downs, La Franchi was unable to get through the opposing line. As none of the other backfield men could do it either, they were forced to toss long passes, a process which they continued until the end of the half with little success.

Though beginning rather slowly, the second half proved to be the fastest of the game, with both teams fighting desperately to score before the last gun. Passing was attempted by both teams for a time until Garcia, Panther end, intercepted a pass and streaked for 20 yards before he was downed. This seemed to stop the aerial attack on the part of the Placer Jayseers, and they began a drive down the field, which eventually led to a touchdown. A place-kick for the extra point was tried but was unsuccessful.

After the touchdown, the local Jaysee players began a drive of their own, led by Swartley, Carter, and La Franchi, which, though powerful, was not quite effective enough to score, so the game ended with Salinas 0, and Placer 6.

Son: "Shall I leave out the swear words?"

Mother: "Yes, of course."

Son: "He didn't say a word."

PANTHER of the week

This week we introduce to you the red-headed Irishman that is the sensation from Watsonville—Ray Kirby.

Kirby excelled in all branches of sports while attending Watsonville high school, and was a member of the football teams which won the C. C. A. L. championship for two consecutive years. His playing on the Panthers' eleven is hampered because of his being shifted from position to position. If he could concentrate on one position, we are sure Kirby would be playing a lot of football on the J. C. team this year.

Ray is a very capable basketball player and a lot will be heard from him in that field a little later.

Upon graduating from Salinas J. C., Ray will enter the field of commerce, where he will undoubtedly be a big success.

Good luck, Ray.

ball games, will be a series of basketball games, represented by more teams. They will be divided into Freshmen-Sophomore and interclass groups.

College "Y" Will Spend Two Days In the Mountains

The members of the J. C. College Y will spend two days, November 20 and 21, in Mr. R. J. Werner's cabin in the Santa Cruz mountains. Mr. Werner and Mr. Langdon hope to accompany the group on its first outing of the year. Swimming and hiking will be two of the main features of the event.

All arrangements are in the hands of the members. Cooking and other tasks will be divided so that all will have an opportunity to hike through the big trees and enjoy the swimming. A night meeting will be held on Saturday, featuring a speaker from Santa Cruz.

Members will have Sunday to themselves. They will leave for home around 3:30 o'clock.

This will be the first, but definitely not the last, outing of the year for the College Y. Harold Stigers, president of the club, said when questioned Monday.

Mrs. Naylor: "You seem rather hoarse this morning, Mrs. Peck."

Mrs. Peck: "Yes, my husband came home very late last night."
